The Lou Ruvo
Alzheimer's Center

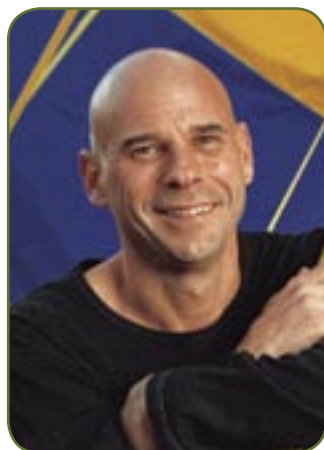

Just on the edge of the horizon, we can see it: a vision of inspiration and dawning of a new day for Alzheimer's patients in Las Vegas.

In 2007, The Lou Ruvo Alzheimer's Center will be open and operating with passion and purpose. This phenomenal patient treatment and research center will consist of 35,000 square feet, set in the 61-acre downtown development. Within, those in need will find 13 examination rooms, offices for health practitioners, exhibition space, a 1,500-square-foot museum of the mind, and a 2,500-square-foot auditorium.

Shaped to nurture Alzheimer's patients and foster their care, the center will be warm and welcoming from the moment guests enter through the gracious central atrium, open to three floors. Patients and their families and friends will come to view this magnificent new entry to the Las Vegas city scene as a haven of comfort and optimism. The creation of a Design Team led by Marnell Architecture, the center will promote interaction and provide inspiration to researchers and patients. Tony Marnell's expert construction team will work diligently to ensure both Keep Memory Alive and The Lou Ruvo Alzheimer's Center a magnificent building that is on-time and on-budget!

Guy Laliberté

Tonight's honoree is a man of extraordinary talent, vision and passion. Founder and CEO of Cirque du Soleil Guy Laliberté began his own spectacular journey as an accordion player, stilt walker and fire-eater. Eager to entertain on a much larger scale, Guy garnered his fervor to form Cirque du Soleil in 1984. Quickly, he and his troupe made a name for themselves realizing Guy's mission of marrying cultures and artistic and acrobatic disciplines. Thanks to Guy's endless wellspring of creativity, Cirque du Soleil is now displaying its feats of the fabulous on five continents.

Never ceasing to extend the limits of the possible, Guy continues to unite the world through art. Night after night, he invites audiences into his imagination, inspiring all to dream in vivid color. His unparalleled contributions to people around the globe have not gone unnoticed.

In 1997, Guy was honored with the Ordre National du Québec, the highest distinction awarded by the Government of Quebec and in 2003, he became a part of the Never Follow Program, Condé Nast group's tribute to creators and innovators.

In 2004, Guy has been sworn as an Officer of the Order of Canada, the highest distinction awarded by the Government of Canada and has been listed in TIME Magazines' Top 100 Most Influential People in the World. Due to his dedication to empowering the imagination, Guy has created a legacy for which humanity will be forever grateful.

Wolfgang Puck

The recipe for super Celebrity Chef Wolfgang Puck's success consists of pure talent, imagination, lots of hard work, and charm! The Austrian-born chef moved to France, becoming a self-taught student of the language, to work alongside master chefs. Eventually, he made his way to America, and after practicing at well-known establishments, he sparked the explosion of his career by opening Spago in Hollywood. Today, the words "celebrity," "chef," and "Wolfgang" are synonymous.

Wolfgang's flair for creating culinary dynamite can be experienced at any of his many famous restaurants spanning the globe such as Spago, Trattoria Del Lupo, Postrio, Granita, Chinois, and Brasserie Vert. In addition to fine and express dining, Wolfgang is also well known for catering the Academy Awards, as well as his cookbooks and TV shows on the Food Network. Outside the kitchen, our friend is extremely active in numerous charities, and has been involved with Keep Memory Alive since its inception.

Jean-Georges Vongerichten

Celebrity Chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten has been infusing his own spice into the New York culinary scene since the '80s. He first began dazzling guests with innovative interpretations of French classics at the Lafayette in The Drake Hotel. At a mere 29 years old, he earned four stars from The New York Times. Destined to continue to make a name for himself, he opened his own bistro in 1991. JoJo was a hit and received the honor of Best New Restaurant of the Year by John Mariani in Esquire.

Jean-Georges continued to dish up hot spot after hot spot with the creation of Vong, which became famous for its Thai-inspired French cuisine. Soon, the name Jean-Georges, along with his creations, was on everybody's lips! In addition to his already admirable accomplishments, Jean-Georges' fare can be appreciated at Jean-Georges, (Mercer) Kitchen, Prime Steakhouse, and Spice Market.

Auction Rules

The Keep Memory Alive Foundation appreciates your participation in tonight's gala event. All your generosity is going to a worthy cause! The silent auction phase of the evening is from 5:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. After dinner is served, the exciting live auction will begin.

BIDDING ON ITEMS

All guests wishing to bid on items must have a bid number. This bid number is distributed at check-in to every guest. Your bid number is valid for the silent Auction, as well as the live auction. By bidding, you are stating that you are ready and willing to purchase an item for your bid amount. Once the highest bid is proclaimed the winner, you have entered into a legally binding contract. The bid is final and non-retractable. For the silent auction, write your bid number and the amount of your bid on the sheet next to the auction item. Please make sure your bid number and bid amount is legible.

AUCTION ITEMS

All items are generously donated by our sponsors and are sold "as is." This disclaimer applies to the value, quality and condition of all auction items. All sales are final. No exchanges or refunds on auction items are permitted. Some items may have restrictions, which are stated in the description and cannot be changed. Keep Memory Alive or the donors make no guarantee or warranty with respect to the auction items presented. Your payment and receipt of auction items release Keep Memory Alive, its officers, directors and agents from any and all claims relating to fitness, quality, value, and merchantability of auction items. If you have questions, please ask before placing your bid.

GIFT CERTIFICATES

Please handle gift certificates with care! Lost gift certificates cannot be refunded or replaced!

TRAVEL AND ENTERTAINMENT PRIZES

Unless specified, transportation, taxes, gratuities, incidentals, and food and beverage costs are not included in hotel stays. Likewise, unless specifically stated, no transportation or hotel accommodations are included in any of the entertainment package deals. You must claim your auction items before February 12, 2006. In order to prevent scheduling conflicts, packages with specific dates may not be exchanged or switched. All of the entertainment packages, restaurant prizes, adventure trips, and hotel getaways are sold on a space available basis. Restrictions, including blackout date, may apply. It is the sole responsibility of the successful bidder for all optional equipment, applicable taxes, license, and registration fees for vehicles. Payment is due upon receipt of auction items.

RESTRICTIONS

Some auction items carry extra restrictions. For additional details, please see each item or the auction catalogue.

DISPUTES

All guests are expected to conduct business with the honor system in mind. If a situation arises where you are in disagreement with the outcome, the Auction Committee will mediate to resolve the dispute.

PAYMENT

The cashier will accept a check, cash, Visa, or MasterCard as payment.

TAX DEDUCTIBILITY

Donations to Keep Memory Alive are tax deductible. You can deduct the amount of auction items you purchase if they are greater than the fair market value of the goods and services you receive. The donor has estimated the fair market value of each item and it is recorded in the auction catalogue. Keep Memory Alive makes no representation or warranty with respect to auction item values as established by the donors. Please consult your personal tax advisor if you have any questions.

TAKE IT WITH YOU

Congratulations on being the highest bidder! We ask that you take all your prizes when you leave. If you have problems transporting your items home, due to the size or quantity of your winnings, let us know and we will be more than happy to help you out!

Keep Memory Alive thanks all of you for helping to make this a very successful event!

Take Me Out To The Ball Game – Chicago Style!
White Sox vs. Cubs Cross-Town Classic

Batter up! This one blows even your wildest baseball dreams out of the ballpark. The bases are LOADED!

First base: You and three guests will arrive in the Windy City the day prior to the game of your choosing from June 24, 25 or 26, 2005, and will enjoy The Penthouse Presidential Suite at the ultra-exclusive Five Star Palmer House. What’s on deck? Travel by limousine to US Cellular Field three hours prior to the game where you will be greeted by Owner Jerry Reinsdorf.

Second base: Next, you’ll be whisked down the field for a close-up of future Hall of Famer Sammy Sosa and to meet Frank Thomas, and the rest of both teams during their batting practice. Chicago White Sox Manager Ozzie Guillen will be counting on YOU to present the starting line-up to the Umpire Staff.

Third base: Game on! You and your guests are about to experience the game Chicago lives for all year long in the brand new “Scout Seats,” where professional scouts evaluate talent. White glove service will be yours every play of the way from these premium seats, putting you closer to home plate than even the pitcher! In addition, Jerry Reinsdorf will request your presence for two innings in the Owner’s Suite. Then you’ll be escorted to the Broadcast Booth to witness the TV and/or radio commentators in action. Off to the Press Room where your group will announce players coming to bat for one full inning over the p.a. system. Playing it up a bit more, you or one of your guests will change a base between innings (must be 18 years of age or older).

Home run!: Steal away with a bag of MLB apparel and souvenirs. Want another Major League score? Dine at Charlie Trotter’s restaurant with the chef himself as your host. Play ball!
